

About Jessica Jones

Jessica “J.Jones” Jones began her dance career at the age of 18 at George Mason University in Fairfax, VA. She became a founding member of UrbanKnowlogy101, Mason’s first hip hop dance troupe in September of 2005. This team would be very instrumental in her career path as she became passionate about hip hop dance. As a member and executive board member-at-large of UrbanKnowlogy101, Jessica has contributed to the foundation of the dance troupe, choreographing and performing for such events as the National Pan-Hellenic Council Step Show three years consecutively and Culture Shock Washington DC Dance Troupe’s East Coast Dance Competition. She has also performed for the Annual Rock the Runway Fashion Show and countless Mason “Midnite Madness” spirit events. Among her community service contributions with UrbanKnowlogy101, she has performed for the orphans of Fairfax during the holiday season of 2007,

Benefit for the Bayou 2006 and Dance for the Cure 2006. Jessica has also danced backup for Canadian artist, Jay Evans and featured in Starchild Productions “Hip Hop Dance Experience” Showcases 2006 & 2007 in Virginia Beach, VA.
